Market Place of the Munnimakers

KEEP OUT,—if You Can't or Won't Offer a Square Deal Keep Out of the Market Place of the Munnimakers. Whether You're an Advertiser or a Buyer,—There's One Thing You are SURE of when You Deal in the Market Place of the Munnimakers—A Deal That's Square.

Copyright, 1903, by Metropolitan Syndicate, Inc., N. Y.

Right
Before You

Don't wait until you need a thing so badly that the need is pressing on you. You can always get what you want, to better advantage, if you don't wait until the last moment. Things that you will soon want done for you—articles that you soon will need—plans you have had in your mind, but that you kept forgetting—are often suggested to you again, ready for your decision, and action; buy the busy little, enterprising "Munnimaker" ads in the Standard. Get the "enterprising habit" yourself, and make it a point every day to read through the little Standard ads for good suggestions. It's like taking a stroll through the "market-place of the Munnimakers." Here's a suggestion for a way to live better at less money; places to board, and places to eat; and houses to rent; good to remember when you become dissatisfied with your present arrangements. Read them with your mind alert, and you'll soon get the habit of turning to the Munnimaker ads every day. You'll find that to every wide-awake progressive man and woman the Munnimaker ads are the most interesting part of the Standard.

Dear Mr. Munnimaker,
Care The Standard Classified Columns.

Through a little Munnimaker Classified Ad in The Standard, I bought a phonograph at half price.

Yours truly,

ALERT.

Write Mr. Munnimaker, care of The Standard, or phone him, No. 56, whenever you want anything.
